

The former "home" of D.H.S. now houses the sheltered Workshop.

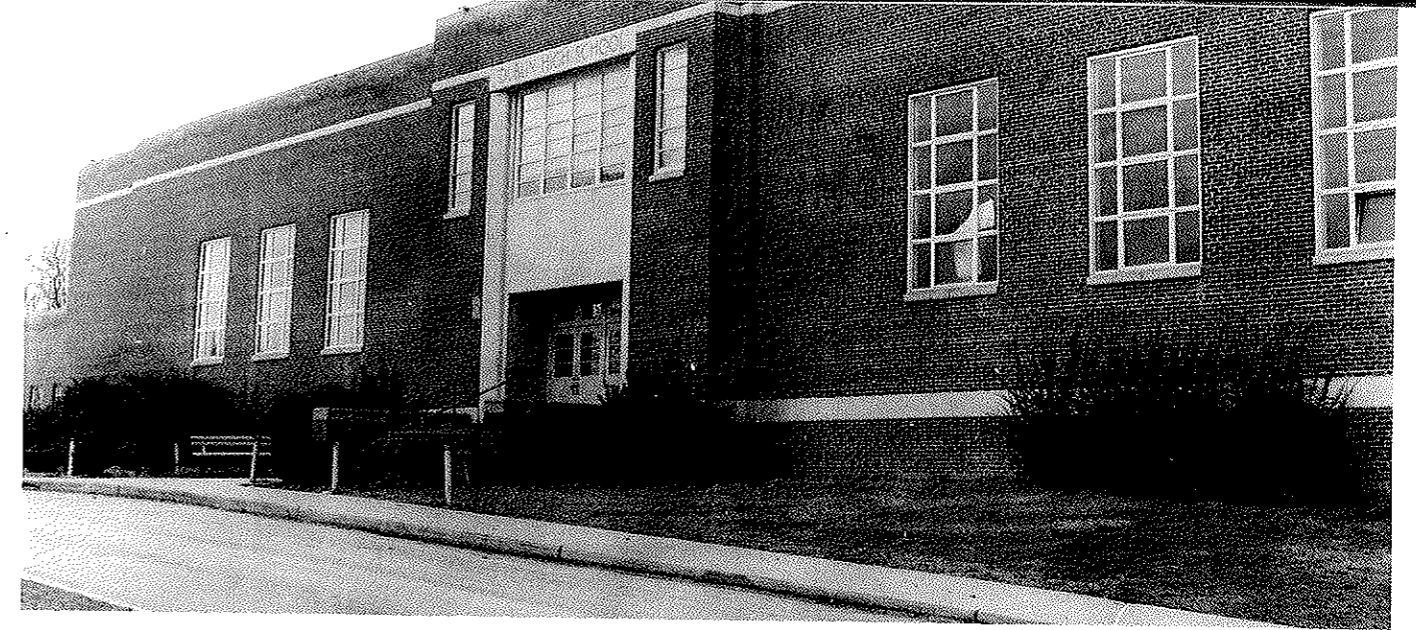

Agriculture and Industrial Arts Departments meet in their own facility.

Nostalgia is an empty room.

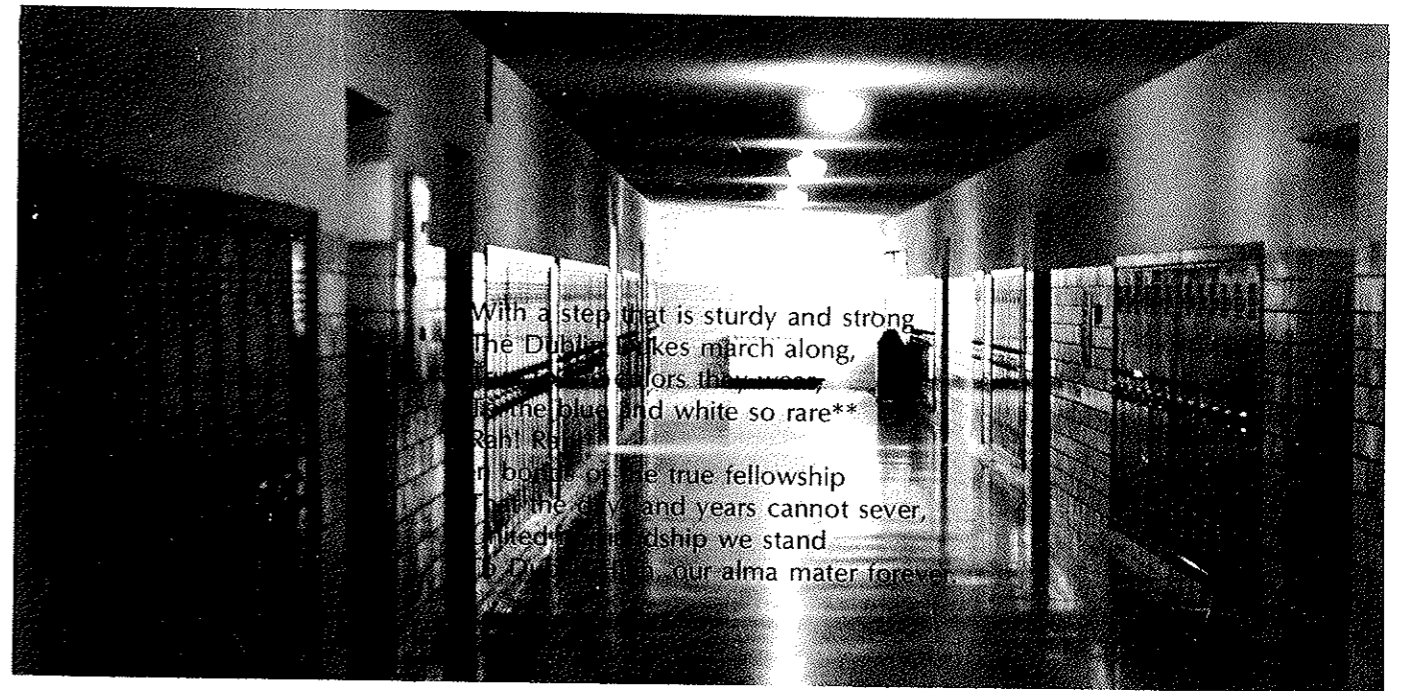

Empty chair denotes consolidation.

Dublin High School stands void of students.

"True To The Colors We Wear"

With a step that is sturdy and strong
The Dublin Falcons march along,
In the colors that we wear,
The blue and white so rare
Rah! Rah!
In bonds of true fellowship
The days and years cannot sever,
In true friendship we stand
Forever true to our alma mater forever

its halls empty and somewhat forlorn,

as the school family leaves for P.C.H.S. and the future.
